Bayne managed to pull his revolver after battling the crowd with his fists and then as the negroes rushed, fired one shot which struck one of his assailants in the hip.

It took the two policemen half an hour to disperse a crowd of two or three hundred persons that gathered and when the streets finally were cleared, one of the cops found that someone had picked his pocket of a $35 gold watch.

M'QUILLAN AND MAYS IN FOURTH

POLO GROUNDES, NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In a setting that had much of the visibility of lamp black in a coal hole, the Giants and Yankees clashed in the fourth game of the world's series this afternoon. The sky was suede colored and light rain fell at intervals during the early morning hours but at ten o'clock upwards of 300 intrepid souls, the largest early rush of the series, since the first day, had parked themselves outside the gate.

With the threat of rain and the series to date as one sided as an oblong, the fans rose to the bait as though it was a morsel of dulcet sweetness. The outpouring was a mute refutation of the charge that Manhattan was viewing its exhaustive series with cold and acadmnic indifference.

The gates were opened at 10:30 and with the band in appropriately playing "Some Sunny Day" the early birds fluttered over the bleachers and upper stands.

Although a slight flurry of rain was falling at the time, the Yankees appeared on the field ready for action at 12:45. The young men looked thoughtful and far from jaunty as they stalked across the enclosure and began batting practice.

That local sentiment had veered to the Giants in view of the latter's record of two victories and tie in the three games played was indicated when the McGraw entry came on the field at 1 o'clock. The Giants received what amounted to a near ovation causing some of the Yankees near the home plate to smile sardonically. The baseball fan is notorfusly fickle, a great fellow for climbing abroad the band wagon.

Everett Scott, Captain of the Yankees, announced this afternoon that Judge Landis, following a conference with officials of both leagues, had assured the players that if the receipts of either today or tomorrow's games are affected by weather conditions the players will not suffer any loss due to the receipts of the tie game being given to charity. It was inferred that the clubs would make up the difference to compensate the players.

That the Yankees fear the worst, regardless of the confidence they blandly profess to feel, is undeniable. The team lacked aggressiveness on the field yesterday and the Ruth incident illustrated the sentiment of the club as a whole. Annoyed that neither he nor his mates could get anywhere against Scott's wonderful pitching, he crashtd into Heinie Groh, the smallest man in the Giant outfit, in a peevish rage. No winning player ever does anything like that.

After yesterday's defeat, Huggins and Colonel Ruppert, president of the club, held a lengthy conference in the Yankee clubhouse but what transpired has not been made known.

"We are still in there fighting and will fight to the last ditch," was the conventional statement of Huggins. "The series is not over yet, not by a long shot. My club hasn't started to hit the ball in the expected manner but while there's life there's hope. I don't know whether to start Mays in the fourth game or bring Bush back. I have both available and both are anxious to get the assignment."

Agreement On Thrace Is Forced

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Lord Curzon, British foreign minister, and Premier Poincare of France reached an agreement at their conference on the Turkish Greece situation here today that Greece will evacuate Thrace and that two conferences will be called in the Near East situation.

One of the conferences will be held at Scutari, before November 10th at which the terms of peace settlement will be agreed upon.

The second conference will be held by a committee of the league of nations to settle the question of the status of the straits.

Premier Poincare in a statement to newspapermen said:

"The allied generals at Mudania have reached an agreement. Greece, through former Premier Venizelos, has accepted the decision and therefore peace is assured. My assurance that the French would occupy Pohapalpia and the western bank of the Maritza during the peace conference overcame the British objection to giving Thrace to the Turks, the British arguing that the allies would lose a valuable hostage prior to the peace negotiations.

It was announced that Greek evacuations would be accomplished "as soon as possible" but that the allied generals would be allowed to exercise their own discretion in fixing the data of the withdrawal. The allies will exercise the powers to enforce order and prevent massacres.

From French sources it was learned that Russia probably would be invited to send representatives to the straits conference to express opinions.

Formal announcement was made this afternoon that the cabinet approved the compromise agreement. The allied generals at Mudania have been instructed to reach a compromise agreement. It was understood that the only disputed point this afternoon was whether the allies should control Thrace until the Near East peace conference is held or only for 30 days.

RESOLUTION MADE UP CONTRARY TO MINUTES BY E. E. SPERRY TO ENGINEER DEAL, SAYS B. M. BYAM

SECRETARY OF COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE ASSERTS BOARD OF ELECTIONS CLERK PUT ACROSS QUESTIONABLE TRANSACTION WHICH CO-OPERATED WITH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN NAMING MURRAY—SAYS ACTION TOOK PLACE IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE DEATH OF SAM V. HAIGH

Secretary D. M. Byam of the County Central Committee in a sworn affidavit today, virtually charges E. E. Sperry, who was the ring-leader in the movement to repudiate the direct primary law and substitute on the ticket for the man who rightly belonged there another, with reading-in to a resolution which was adopted, matter which was not there at all according to Mr. Byam's minutes and his recollection in order for the Executive Committee to get the semblance of a right to fill the vacancy which by law belonged to the County Central Committee a more numerous body.

Charges Authority Usurped

The law provides that the County Central Committee shall fill vacancies, but Mr. Sperry very evidently wanted the Executive Committee to perform this function and as soon as Mr. Haigh died, Mr. Sperry got busy, and he forced this language into the resolution according to Mr. Byam. He evidently was determined that the Executive Committee was going to do the appointing and the minutes should be fixed to give them the show of authority. Mr. Byam's minutes, and Mr. Byam was secretary, and Mr. Byam is known to be an able, well equipped man, had no provision granting such power from the Central Committee to the Executive Committee. A number of lawyers declared today that such purported authority is absolutely without force in law because a group designated by the law to elect, can not delegate the authority to some other group. Mr. Byam's affidavit follows:

Contents of Charges

Stetson and duly seconded, that the executive committee be given the power to carry on the Republican Campaign prior to the next general election, in November 1922. I wrote out said motion at the time it was made and I feel very certain that the above was all that said motion contained; and know positively that there was no other motion of similar character made at that meeting and further, that there has been no other meeting of said Central Committee since said primary election.

ELYRIA HIGH TAKES TOLEDO BATTLE

White and Crimson Score on Woodward Tech in First Two periods, Winning Third Game 25-0 Before 1500 Spectators—Captain Brandis, Green and Lehman Star For Toledo While Elyria's Team-Play Predominates

By CLIFF C. HENNINGS

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 7.—(Staff Special)—Elyria High School sprung the championship surprise of Toledo here yesterday afternoon when their grid outfit took the Blue and White team through the football museum and showed them the dull side of a 25-0 argument with Birmingham Field as the background.

The Elyria crew scored in the first five minutes of play when a 25-yard pass, Vessey to Halpin, started the ball toward the Woodward goal. The Blue and White team was good individually, but lacked the requisite team-play while the Elyria aggregation's rapid-fire team-work acted as a unit on every play. The Tech crew broke loose in the final quarter when a trick pass netted 60 yards but the Elyria line held and the ball was punted out of danger.

Tech Good Individually

Woodward showed good individual play, but lacked the interference and unity of the visitors. Green proved to be the best line plunger while Capt. Brandis and Lehman proved good on end runs and a few good passes. Woodward only secured three first downs, while the 100% City lads made eleven first downs count for four touchdowns. The Tech boys showed good sportsmanship on the field and played a fast clean game, only one penalty being called on her, for off-side play.

The game put up by Elyria yesterday brings her one more notch nearer a favorable position in the 1922 campaign. The snap and team-work of the White and Crimson brought admiration to the Woodward fans and players alike as they played in unity—tackling clean, cutting out dangerous men, blocking, etc. In fact every man on the Elyria team did his share. The backfield specialized on long runs and passes, while the line broke up play after play as well as blocking punts and passes. Coach Peabody used all seventeen of the players who made the trip.

After three minutes of play Vassey shot Halpin a pass good for twenty-five yards which started the ball down the field until it stopped on the other side of the goal line.

In the second period Quarterback Halpin found a weak spot through center and played the weak locality for six more points. Woodward opened up with a variety of aerial offerings none of which were very successful as ground gainers. Just before the close of the half, Dangerfield broke loose and raced 54 yards being dropped by Captain Brandis on the one-yard parallel where Halpin took it over. Hauserman then intercepted a Woodward pass and ran 50 yards for Elyria's fourth and final touchdown of the game. Game by quarters:

First Quarter

"Philp" Hauserman won the toss and elected to defend the west goal. Captain Brandis then chose the receiving privilege and took Krugman's kick-off back five yards. Brandis punted to Halpin on Woodward's 20-yard parallel. Hauserman and Vessey made 14 yards through the line only to have Woodward hold and recover on downs in mid-field. A delayed pass, Vessey to Halpin netted a gain of 25 yards and was followed by two line smashes which placed the ball on Tech's ten-yard line. Vessey with perfect interference by Hauserman and Dangerfield skirted left wing for the first marker of the game. Halpin's drop-kick in the try-for-point hit the cross-bar. Krugman's kick-off was returned five yards by Brandis. An end run and a trick pass produced eight more for Tech and Green made it first down. "Biddy" Clark then threw Lehman for two yard loss and Reynolds blocked Brandis' pass forcing him to punt as the quarter ended. Score: Elyria 6; Woodward 0.

Second Quarter

Elyria's ball on her own 31-yard parallel. Houserman, Dangerfield and Halpin made 18 through center in three hard smashes. On the next play Houserman dropped back and passed the oval to Halpin, who after losing the ball three times he made 15 yards. Quarter-back Halpin again calls a play through the weak center which resulted in Vessey's gain of 20 yards and Elyria's second touchdown. Halpin's drop-kick was a trifle wide.

Krugman kicked off to Lehman. Both teams exchanged punts. After two line bucks Vessey punted back to Brandis. Green made eight by three line bucks but the Elyria line again held for downs and recovered on their 45-yard marker. Fullback Dangerfield then brought the spectators to their feet when he broke loose with a 54-yard run through the whole Tech team except Brandis who dropped him on the one-yard line. "Red" Brandis who entered the game with a bad knee was hurt on this play and forced to withdraw. Halpin took the pigskin over on a quarter-back sneak and made good his drop-kick in the try-for-point. Krugman kicked off to Hill.

On the following play "Philp" Houserman intercepted a Woodward pass and raced 50 yards for Elyria's fourth touchdown. Halpin missed goal. Krugman kicks off as half ends. Score: Elyria 25; Woodward 0.

Third Quarter

[illegible] kicked off to Green, [illegible] immediately punted back to [illegible]. Vessey punts back on the [illegible] down and West recovers [illegible]. Halpin made [illegible] around right wing. In this play, Green was injured and was replaced by Lathrop. Dangerfield and Houserman worked each wing for four yards. Houserman made it first down through tackle. On the fourth down Houserman's pass over the goal line was incomplete and Woodward recivers on her 20-yard marker. Reynolds breaks up a trick pass. Lathrop and Dangerfield exchange punts. Wood fails to gain through the line as quarter ends. Score: Elyria 25; Woodward 0.

Fourth Quarter

Brandis punts to mid-field. Vessey fumbles and end West again recovers for Elyria. A pass, Houserman to Clark, makes 20 yards and first down. Four line plunges fail to get necessary yardage and Woodward recovers and punts to Halpin. Boylan, Dangerfield and Halpin make it first down through the line. Watson, Tech's left end, draws the first penalty of the game for being off-side. Two forward passes, Houserman to Halpin, net 14 yards and another first down. The Woodward line took a grip on things and forced Dangerfield to punt. Brandis punted back to Halpin who by clever open field work ran it back twenty-two yards. "Red" Brandis intercepted Houserman's pass but was spilled [illegible] in his tracks by tackle "Wade" Reynolds. "Jim" Renouard throws Lehman and Coom each for a three-yard loss. At this juncture Tech worked their trump card, a trick pass, Lehman to Brandis, which was good for 60 yards. Brandis was dropped on Elyria's 20-yard parallel by Reonnard. Houserman and Dangerfield break up two Tech passes. Elyria draws the second and final penalty of the game for rushing the receiver of a pass behind the goal line. With 20 yards to go Woodward fails to cross the line when Elyria recovers on downs. Dangerfield punted as the final whistle blew. Final score: Elyria 25; Woodward 0.

WHEN EMIL MEUSEL SMACKED HIS HOMER IN SECOND GAME

Groh and Frisch jogging home ahead of Meusel on his homer in first inning. Meusel had just rounded first.

It looked like another victory for the Giants in the second game of the world's series when Emil Meusel hit one of Bob Shawkey's slants for a homer in the first inning after singles had put Heinie Groh and Frank Frisch on base. Meusel's drive went into the left field stands.

HASERODT JEWELERS LOSE TO LORAIN 5

Haserodt's Jewelers were defeated at the Temple alleys last night by the strong Metropole bowling outfit of Lorain. The Jewelers fell down badly on the second game and barely rolled 800. The other two games were fairly close. The scores:

ELYRIA BARBERS TO PLAY AT WELLINGTON

The Kalmar and Birmingham Barbers eleven will go to Wellington tomorrow to take on the strong Wellington A. C. of that city. The game will start at 2:30.

Wellington has been putting on a good team the last few years and especially this year. The team last year won the majority of games and held the strong Athletics to a 13-13 tie. They are out for county championship.

The Barbers will be somewhat handicapped as several players will not be able to be in the line-up Sunday owing to injuries. They will play their best and return with the big end of the score. If they play the same football as last Sunday their will win as they have been practicing hard all week.

No definite line-up can be given.

FOOLING FISHWORMS

Peter O'Keefe, chief storekeeper of the Portsmouth navy yard, has devised a scheme to fool fishworms and thus increase the food supply for laying hens. His scheme is so unique that the story of it netted him a flivver, as a prize from the Boston Post, for the most original news item of the day. He tested the novel apparatus in a poultry yard to prove its success.

"First," said he, "take two brass rods, two feet long, attach a wire to each rod, push the rods in the earth a foot, with a distance of several feet between; hook both ends of the wire to an ordinary telephone magneto and twist the handle for a few seconds; the earth between the poles will then begin to break all along and all shapes and sizes of angle worms will come to the surface. This is caused by the vibration an dtingling effect of the magneto in the damp ground between the poles; needless to soy, the chickens are at once on the job and as long as the magneto is applied the hens are mighty busy hens."

NATIONAL TUBE CO. TO ERECT BIG DOCK

LORAIN, Oct. 7.—The National Tube Co. has announced that they will proceed to erect a 500 foot concrete dock on the river front on their premises. They will also install four new unloading carriers.

WILL THEY BE THE "GOATS" OF THE WORLD'S SERIES?

Every world's serier has had its "goat," an unfortunate victim of fate. Usually this "goat" has been a player. The unfortunate incident which marked the close of the second game of the 1922 series stands out as the high spot in the battle. Umpire-in-Chief Hildebrand, after conferring with Umpire Klem before the start of the tenth inning, decided to call the game at the end of that inning. The score was a tie when the conference was held and the game called. Thousands of disgruntled fans took out their anger on Commissioner Landis, occupying a box. They jostled him and threw paper at him. In the evening Judge Landis announced that the decision of the umpires would be upheld, but that the entire proceeds of the game would be given to the disabled soldiers and charities of New York. The reason given by the umpires for calling the game was their thought that approaching darkness might cause the game to be won or lost on a "fluke." Fans had not noticed any change in the light.

SUNDAY LEAGUE ENDS SEASON TOMORROW

Manager Jim McCrann is inclined to be sore over the charge that he is loading up for the ball game tomorrow when his West Side team will meet Bannon's outfit.

McCrann states that although Nichols will play third, in place of Reese, who has gone home, Gotro will replace Schrimp at short and Ray Draegert will replace Hollis in the field because the two players named are now playing football, he has plenty of talent to draw from. The players mentioned asked to play with the West Side outfit and they were accommodated. McCrann states he has just as good material setting on the bench, and the charge that he has loaded up is rediculous. Rose and Bennett will be his battery, and he states they are unbeatable. This game starts at 1:30 o'clock. Richwines and Greenwoods clash in the second game at 3:30.

ARREST DOCTOR FOR FALSE CHARGES

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 6.—Dr. Jams A. Carnes, of 811 Plum street, physician for the Central Steel Company on Columbia Heights, was arrested at 9 o'clock this morning at his residence by deputy U. S. Marshal A. L. Gibson of Cleveland and Chief of police E. M. Ertle, of this city charged with the sending fraudulent bills for services to the state of Ohio.

Dr. Carnes was taken at once to Canton, where he was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Julius Whiting. He pleaded not guilty and demanded a hearing. Commissioner Whiting placd him under a nominal bond of $1,000 pending a conference between Mr. Whiting and U. S. district attorney E. S. Werts of Cleveland. Commissioner Whiting said today that the hearing probably would take place next week.

The arrest of Dr. Carnes is said to be among the first of a number expected throughout the state of Ohio for alleged fraud perpetrated against the state by physicians.

ESTABLISH NEW ENDURANCE RECORD

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 7.—The world's sustained flight record was broken here today by Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John MacReady when they had kept the new army monoplane T-2 in the air longer than 26 hours and eleven minutes mark made at Berlin in 1920. At 8:30 they were still circling over the city and Rockwell Field. Officials expressed the firm belief that they would remain aloft until their fuel supply is exhausted, sometime this afternoon.

Myers, as plaintiff, has filed a petition against them, as defendants, in the Court of Common Pleas of Lorain County, Ohio, alleging that she is the owner in fee simple and is in actual possession of the following described real estate, to-wit

Situated in the Township of Ridgeville County of Lorain and State of Ohio, and known as being part of Original Lots Nos 5 and 6 in said Ridgeville Township, bounded and described as follows

Beginning in the center line of Barton Road, so called, at a point 814.1 feet measured along the center line of said road Northwesterly from the intersection of the center line of said road and the East line of said Original Lot No 5; thence North 34 degrees 55 minutes East, a distance of 738.8 feet, thence North 53 degrees 17 minutes West a distance of about 745.8 feet to the center line of said Barton Road; thence South 55 degrees 5 minutes East in the center of said Road, a distance of 220.7 feet to the place of beginning, containing 3.762 acres of land.

The petition alleges that the defendants, Peter Barton, Laura Fitch Rhoda Barton Vaughn, Anna Barton, Sarah Barton Ford, Mary Barton, Eva Zillah Vaughn, Edith E. Ford, Bertha M Ford, Sarah Barton, ——— Fitch, first name unknown, husband of Laura Fitch, Laura S. Ford, Arthur E Ford, ——— Ford, first name unknown, wife of Arthur E Ford, ——— name unknown, husband of Anna Barton and the unknown heirs, devisees, and personal representatives of Peter Barton, deceased, of Laura Fitch, deceased, of Rhoda Barton Vaughn, deceased, of Anna Barton, deceased, of Sarah Barton Ford, deceased, of Eva Zillah Vaughn, deceased, of Edith E. Ford, deceased, of Bertha M. Ford, deceased, and of Laura S. Ford, deceased, each claim some title or interest in and to said premises adverse to the title of the plaintiff herein for the reason that one Peter Barton who was also known as Peter Barton III, died about the year 1863, seized of an [illegible] acre tract in said Lot No. [illegible] that there is no record in the Probate Court of Lorain County, Ohio, of the death or administration of the estate of Peter Barton, and there is nothing of record to show who were the heirs at law of the said Peter Barton, deceased, except an affidavit of one A. L. Mills; that there is no record or administration upon the estates of Sarah Barton Ford who died in the month of February, 1878, leaving her husband, Newell Ford, and Arthtur E. Ford, Laura S. Ford, Edith E. Ford and Bertha M. Ford, her only heirs at law; that said Edith E. Ford died in the month of February, 1881, and said Bertha M. Ford died in the month of October, 1880, that the said Edith E. Ford and Bertha M Ford were never married, that Rhoda Barton Vaughn died in 1873 leaving Ada Vaughn and Eva Zillah Vaughn her only heirs at law.

The petition alleges that the defendants, Laura Fitch, ——— Fitch, first name unknown, husband of Laura Fitch and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Laura Fitch, deceased, claim some interest in said premises adverse to plaintiff's right by reason of the fact that in a deed dated October 23, 1869, and recorded in deed Volume 31, page 156 of Lorain County, Ohio, records no husband joins with the grantor in said deed nor waives dower therein nor is any statement made therein that the grantor or unmarried.

The petition alleges that Laura S. Ford, ——— Ford, first name unknown, husband of Laura S. Ford, and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Laura S. Ford, deceased, claim some interest in said premises hostile and adverse to plaintiff's right by reason of the fact that in a deed dated December 22, 1886, and recorded in Deed Volume 60 Page 192, Lorain County, Ohio, Records, no husband joins with the said grantor in said deed nor waives dower therein, nor in any statement made therein that the grantor was unmarried

The petition alleges that the defendants, Arthur E Ford, ——— Ford, fist name unknown, wife of said Arthur E. Ford, and the unknown heirs devisees and personal representatives of Arthur E. Ford, deceased, claim some right, title or interest in and to said premises, hostile and adverse to plaintiff's right, by reason of the fact that in a deed dated August 12, 1887, recorded in Volume 61, page 107, Lorain County Records, no wife joins with one of the grantors therein, Arthur E Ford, nor waives dower therein, nor in any statement made therein that the granter was unmarried, and that said deed conveyed an undivided one-twelfth interest in the premises above described, but that said deed is silent as to whether the one-twelfth interest so conveyed was the entire interest of the said Arthur E Ford in and to said premises.

The petition alleges that the defendants, Eva Zillah Vaughn, Mary Barton ——— name unknown, husband of Anna Barton, and ——— name unknown, husband of Eva Zillah Vaughn, and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Eva Zillah Vaughn, deceased, and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Mary Barton deceased and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Anna Barton deceased, claim some interest in said premises hostile and adverse to plaintiff's rights by reason of a certain deed dated April 3, 1891, and recorded in Volume 67, page 375 of Lorain County Deed Records in which deed the defendant, Mary Barton, one of the grantors therein, failed and neglected to execute said instrument, that said instrument does not disclose whether Anna Barton and Eva Zillah Vaughn were married or unmarried and no husbands join with them in said deeds or waives dower therein, and that said instrument was signed by one Zillah Vaughn and that the plaintiff is not advised whether the said Zillah Vaughn who signed said instrument is identical with Eva Zillah Vaughn, daughter of Rhoda Barton Vaughn

The petition alleges that the defendants, Edwin Byington and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Edwin Byington, deceased, claim some right title or interest in and to said premises above described by reason of two mortgages both executed by William R Root and both in favor of Edwin Byington, the first dated February 11, 1833, and recorded in deed Volume E, Page 302, of Lorain County Records, and the second dated November 17, 1833, and recorded in Deed Volume F, Page 27, of Lorain County Records, and that although said mortgages and notes secured thereby were thereafter fully paid by merger of title to said premises by conveyance by said William R Root and wife, Nancy Root, to Edwin Byington by deed dated June 12, 1835, and recorded in Deed Volume G, Page 390 of Lorain County Records, the said mortgages were not cancelled of record and by reason thereof there is a cloud cast upon plaintiff's title to said premises.

The petition alleges that the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Melvin Blanchard deceased, claim some right title or interest in and to said premises, hostile and adverse to plaintiff's right by reason of the fact that although there was administration upon the estate of the said Melvin Blanchard who died on or about February 6, 1838, and whose estate is administered in case No. 109 of the docket of the Lorain County Probate Court, the application did not disclose the names or number of heirs, devisees, or next of kin and thereby a cloud is cast upon plaintiff's title to said premises

The petition alleges that the defendants, Thomas Blanchard, Galon Blanchard, Susan Blanchard, otherwise known as Susana Blanchard, ——— Blanchard, first name unknown, wife of Thomas Blanchard, ——— Blanchard, first name unknown, wife of Galon Blanchard, ——— name unknown, husband of Susan Blanchard, otherwise known as Susana Blanchard, the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Thomas Blanchard, deceased, the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Galon Blanchard deceased, the unknown, heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Susan Blanchard, otherwise known as Susana Blanchard, deceased have or claim to have some interest in said premises hostile and adverse to plaintiff's rights which constitutes a cloud on plaintiff's title, by reason of a certain deed dated September 8, 1843, and recorded in Lorain County Deed Records, Volume P, page 665, wherein Thomas Blanchard, Galon Blanchard and Susana Blanchard were grantors and Hiram Blanchard was grantee, that said deed does not disclose whether the grantors were married or unmarried and no husband or wives joined with the said grantors in said deed or waived dower therein and for the further reason that the said Susana Blanchard signed said deed as Susan Blanchard and that said deed was defectively executed by reason of the fact that it has only one witness to the signatures of the grantors.

The petition alleges that the defendants, Warren Blanchard, ——— Blanchard, first name unknown, wife of Warren Blanchard, and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Warren Blanchard, deceased, claim some right title or interest in and to said premises, hostile and adverse to plaintiff's right, which constitutes a cloud on plaintiff's title by reason of the fact that in a deed dated September 12, 1843, and recorded in Volume P, page 666 of Lorain County Records, wherein one Warren Blanchard attempted to convey to Hiram Blanchard all of his interest in and to said premises there was a defective execution of said deed, and the said deed failed to disclose whether the grantor was married or unmarried and no wife joined with the said grantor or released dower therein.

The petition alleges that the defendants, Hiram Blanchard, ——— Blanchard, first name unknown, wife of Hiram Blanchard, and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of [illegible]

[illegible] or was married or [illegible] no wife joins in said deed nor dower therein; and also by reason of a certain mortgage recorded [illegible] Deed Records [illegible] 1846, by William Taylor [illegible] B. Taylor in favor of Hiram Blanchard, which has been fully paid, but has not been released or cancelled of record.

The petition alleges that defendants, Nancy M. Stafford, the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Nancy M. Stafford, deceased, have or claim to have some interest in said premises hostile and adverse to plaintiff's right which creates a cloud against plaintiff's title by reason of the fact that the said Nancy M. Stafford was named as legatee in the last will and testament of one William Taylor whose will was dated November 1854, and is recorded in Will Record [illegible], Page 388 of Lorain County Probate Court, and that no receipt has been filed in the said Probate Court showing that said bequest was paid.

The petition alleges that Mary B. Taylor and the unknown heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Mary B. Taylor, deceased, claim some interest in said premises by reason of the fact that the said Mary B. Taylor became the owner of said premises by the will of one William Taylor, deceased, as above referred to, and that no conveyance appears of record in Lorain County, Ohio, from the said Nancy B. Taylor, but the petition further alleges that the Mary B. Taylor after the death of William Taylor intermarried with one ——— Mills, that there is no record in Lorain County, Ohio, of such marriage and that the said Mary B. Taylor as said the said Mary B. Mills conveyed that part of Lot No. 76 described above, by deed recorded in Volume 14, Page 512, of Lorain County Deed Records, but that said deed does not disclose whether the grantor was married or unmarried and no husband joins or waives dower therein.

The petition further alleges that the claims of each and every defendant above named are each of them wholly unfounded and without merit; that the plaintiff and his predecessors in title have been in open actual, notorious, continuous, adverse and undisputed possession of said premisese for more than twenty-one years last preceding the filing of the petition in this action, to-wit, since 1891, and that whatever interest or claims said defendants, or any of them, may have had in said premises have long since been barred by the Statute of Limitations and lapse of time, and that said defendants have in fact no right, title or interest in or to said premises, or any part thereof.

The prayer of said petition is that the said defendants and each of them may be required to answer and set forth what interest, if any, they have or claim to have in and to said premises, that the plaintiff's title in said premises may be quieted as against said defendants and each of them, that the said defendants may be forever enjoined from claiming any title, right or interest in and to said premises, that their claims to said premises may be forever barred and for relief.

Said petition is No. ——— and the above named defendants are required to answer the same on or before the 11th day of November, 1922.

DIRECTORY OF "LOVE" WOMEN FOUND ON BODY

PHOENIX, Aris., Oct. 7.—"A love directory," containing the names of 100 or more women of phoenix, Los Angeles, Chicago and other cities was said by the police today to be the chief clue in the murder mystery of Guy N. Denier. The names were written in a little blackbound book that Denier carried in his breast pocket over his heart.

Denier's body, scantly clothed, was found floating in a canal on the outskirts of this city. It was believed at first that he had committed suicide but a postmortem revealed that he had been choked to death.

Denier was formerly head of a department in a large Chicago mail order house. Ill health compelled him to come into the southwest. He became a well know figure in the highest social circles in the city and an official of the [illegible] club. He was especially [illegible] with the women and is said to [illegible] been named as corespondent [illegible] several divorce suits.

A short time before his [illegible] Denier left this city. He [illegible] ported to have said to a friend:

"If I return to Phoenix [illegible] certain woman it is certain [illegible] be killed."

The police believe that [illegible] was killed when caught in [illegible] git love intrigue and that [illegible] was carried through the [illegible] broad daylight in a [illegible] dumped into the canal.

LET US GET TOGETHER

From every side there is condemnation for the action of the Executive Committee of the Republican party in repudiating the voice of the people, expressed at the primary, and substituting one of their own number for a position made vacant by death, and really belonging to another person. There was no reason, though there may have been some slight excuse, for some of the members voting as they did.

The ring-leader of this opposition to the voice of the people in the committee, has always been an opponent of the primary, does not believe that the people know what they want, worships at the shrine of star chamber sessions, closed doors, secret votes, and machine rule generally We were neither surprised nor disappointed at his activity How he got other people to follow him into such an outrageous scheme is a mystery.

However, those living in the south end of the county had this defense for their vote; they were voting for a neighbor Local pride affected their action, and they were simply dominated by the ideas of the old convention system The same is true of the members of the Lorain committee This defense does not apply, however, to either member of the Executive Committe from Elyria, who voted against the people's choice. In this case they not only voted against the wishes of the people, and the primary law, but they voted against their own fellow towsman, who was entitled to the nomination by the votes received on primary day, and who carried the city of Elyria by a plurality of one hundred and nine votes over the deceased candidate himself.

In the case of one of these members we were really surprised. He had pretended to believe in the force of the primary law, because he had at one time submitted himself to the force of its operations, by being a candidate for office in the primary. By the action of the other of the two we were not surprised. Before her selection on the committee by the members of the committee, for she was not elected by the people, we were informed that where the political ring was on one side in a contest, and the people on the other, she would line up, without question, with the political ring Because of this conviction we were opposed to her selection. Her action vindicates the legitimacy of our opposition. We did not dream even then, however, that she would oppose a fellow townsman, as well as the primary law, to carry out any one's behests

We would call attention of the people however, to the fact that this betrayal of trust is not chargeable to the Republican party as a whole The candidates running on the state ticket were not a party to this plot, nor any of those on the county ticket, while in the case of some of the county candidates we know personally that they were absolutely opposed to it. We would urge therefore, that all friends of the primary system, and those who believe that the voice of the people should be heeded, not attempt to injure the Republican party in their disappointment over this particular action

It is time for the forces to get together for the campaign. The Honorable Carmi Thompson for Governor, Dr. S. D. Fess for United States Senator, C. C. Crabbe for Attorney General, and others of the state ticket, together with the candidates on the county Republican ticket, form an array of men who are a credit to the party and who will ensure a strong and able administration. Because of this handicap placed upon the voters of Lorain county by this committee we are laboring under odds to begin with, but that means that we should only fight the harder and roll up majorities in spite of it, that will be a credit to Lorain County Republicanism.

THE PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW

The only way that wrong-doing can be cured in public places is by turning on the search-light. It will take care of itself, or rather the public will take care of it, when they know about it. It is an old and true statement that if you turn a search-light into a rat hole it is spoiled for rat purposes.

Sometimes when crime prevails in a city, fault is found with the newspapers for exposing the condition. If this were not done the condition would grow worse because the public would be generally ignorant.

Of course there may be those who have sufficient sympathy with the crooks to find fault with the newspaper for turning the search-light in, for that very reason, but in the end, in spite of such criticism, conditions are better and life is more wholesome.

Y. M. C. A WORKERS DRIVE

"One thousand members of the Y. M. C. A." is the slogan which will be trumpeted by one hundred team workers and many individual boosters from the present membership of the "Y" during the campaign for members next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

When the charter list of members was made up there were more than a thousand who had signed up for five years. In 1919 there were as many as 972 members. The 675 who are active today are out in a "back to normalcy" drive to regain the former standard.

"It's the strongest organization since 1911," said one of the campaign leaders today when looking over the list of captains and workers.

Although six men or boys were set as the minimum to make up a team, practically all of the leaders are filling their parts of the organization to larger working limit.

A. L. Garford, for seven years president of the Association, and the leader of the building fund campaign, is heading one general division of seven teams. They are as follows:

Team number 1. Lawrence Webber, Captain. Jack Warden, Deane Burns, Charles Tucker, E. J. Crisp, Chas Sotherden, Chas. Crehore Harold Perry.

Team number 2. C. A. Squire, Captain A. E Taylor, Art Richwine, Reuben Etreube, O C. Milliken, Steve Stone, Lewis Young, Kenneth Lord, A C Hudnut, A. J Robson

Team B Allen Humphrey, Captain John Grant, Robert Ehrbar, William Griffin Ralph Steinmetz, Howard Martin

Team C. Art Horan, Captain Gerald Squires, Allen Squires, Howard Crooks, Phil Colgan, Wilton Berger

Frank M Shelton will manage the division made up of the following teams

Team number 5 Walter Davies, Captain, George Day, W C Fowls, Walter Ludwig, J F. Birdsal, Geo Allen, H D Biggs, F G Koehle, Gus Kolinsk.

Team number 6 W S Smith, Captain Roy Ramage, Edwin Kirby, J H Grant, W L Burner, J. A. Hewitt, D A Baird

Heam number 7. J H McElhinney, Captain Chas Biggs, Jay Fitch, Arthur Tite, H E Vibber, Ralph Young

Team number 8 Ralph Murbach, Captain Dr J E Betteridge, Henry Heidrick, E. Birch, Earl Bell, Don Meyers

The boys in this division are as follows:

Team D Eric Chapman, Captain Kenneth West, Paul Braddon, Norman Basinger, Earl Lautenschlager, Earl Clayford

Team E Hugh Gray, Captain Harry Gawne, Kenneth Heidrick, George Hewitt, Gerald Hultz, Tom Moody

Team F Del Savage, Captain, Richard Kuss, Ralph Shaw, Bob Risk Phil Waterman

Division XL, small in numbers but determined in spirit, is to be managed by Andy Gump, Captain, General and leader Chief Stankard, Mayor Jones, Senator Burke, Gwilym Jones, Harry Calvert, T. I Moise, John Roehl will work in this division Andy will be assisted in the boys division by his son Chester.

The campaign will open with a dinner at the Y. M C. A. for all workers and members of the Y M C A It is expected that over one hundred will be present at the event At this meeting A L Garford, F. M Shelton nad Judge Webber will make brief talks and the captains will make their initial claims of victory. The machinery of the campaign will se set in motion by choosing the eight hundred prospect cards that will guide the workers during the following three days. These names will be so presented and acted upon that all will b edisposed of in eight minutes. The meeting will begin at 6 15 and be adjourned at 8:00. Teams will meet at the Association Tuesday morning for prospect cards distributed according to teams. The first report will be made at a dinner Wednesday noon.

BANKERS' VIEWS ON DEBTS DEBATED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Sentiment developed at the annual meeting of the American Bankers' Association in New York this week for closer co-operation with Europe and the cancellation, in part at least, of the $11,000,000,000 owed the United States by foreign governments, beat against the unyielding wall of congressional opposition today.

"Not a chance," was the burden of replies of many congressional leaders to the arguments advanced by the bankers for more American participation in European affairs, and the writing off by the American debt funding commission of a large amount of European obligations.

It was looked upon as significant today that following the bankers' resolution advocating extreme leniency with European debtors, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon hastened to assert that the United States looked to every European nation to pay its obligations in full and that no differentiation would be made between debts incurred for the purchase of food and those incurred for munitions purchases.

In making this statement, Mr. Mellon, who also is chairman of the debt funding commission, was merely interpreting the opinion of an overwhelming majority of congress, it was asserted that today by congressional leaders.

Without regard to party lines, senators and congressmen endorsed the statement of Secretary Mellon today asserted that under no circumstances will this or the next congress consent to the cancellation of any of the foreign indebtedness.

Senators who have lately returned from abroad, among them Senator Ladd, of North Dakota, Senator Caraway, Democrat, of Arkansas, and a number of house members, are violently opposed to America's dipping in abroad.

"Writing off America's claims would merely give them more means to keep up their expensive military establishments," said Senator Caraway. "The American congress will never endorse such a plan."

The American debt funding commission, under existing law, is under the express mandate to negotiate complete settlement of foreign indebtedness within 25 years, the debtors in the meantime to pay interest at the rate of 4 1-4 per cent.

Only congress itself can change this law, and canvass of congressional opinion today disclosed no sentiment towards modifying the terms.

The British debt mission, headed by Sir Robert Horne, is expected to reach this country the last of October Coincident with its arrival, it was learned today, a conference of international banking interests will be held in New York City to advocate cancellation of some portions of the foreign debt.

Starting time 2 p. m.

Jack Scott, ertswhile baseball derelict who redeemed a precarious past yesterday by pitching the best game of the series to date, appeared on the field some minutes behind the rest of the Giants squad and was cheered from the moment he entered the enclosure, until he reached the bench.

Following his custom of the preceding games, Huggins came out in the open fifteen minutes before game time with the announcement that Carl Mays, his undersiung pitcher, would work against the Giants McGraw's choice at that time was not definite but it was believed to be Hugh McQuillan.

What the rival captains say:

Dave Bancroft, of the Giants—with two games tucked safely away with our pitching in fine shape and the support the mound men get, the Giants see nothing but victory ahead.

"Of course, there is never any certainty about a game before it is played. Breaks and luck have a way of upsetting even the best calculations. But we are confident".

Everett Scott, of the Yankees:

"Our batting slump caused us to lose two games to the Giants. I am not alone on the team in feeling that we are going to come back. Everybody believes that. Our heavy hitting battery is going to come into action, I believe, and retrieve the lost advantage."

devotion to the same principles which we advocate we endorse the candidacy of the Honorable J. F. Burke for State Senator from this District.

Be it also resolved that we recommend the Honorable Simeon D. Fess for United States Senator from this District for his unequivocal stand for the Prohibition cause.

Be it further resolved that the Lorain County Women's Christian Temperance Union do all in their power to assist in the campaign against bringing back beer and wine and that we work untiringly to uphold the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act.

The afternoon session was opened by praise and song service led by Miss Hinman.

The memorial service for the nine deceased members was an impressive service and was in charge of Mrs. Strickler and Mrs. Phinney.

The President's Annual address was full of inspiration and showed that she had not been very idle during the year. Mrs Hill spoke of the importance of a united effort of all Christian Temperance people in the campaign we are no wengaged in if we retain the victories all ready achieved.

Senator J. F. Burke gave a masterly address, choosing for his subject, "Women in Politics" Mr. Burke very forcibly brought out the idea that our aim should be to stand for principles firsts and that the party is for the purpose of carrying out these ideals but we must stand for men and women that represent principles for which we stand regardless of party

The closing prayer was voiced by Mrs. Warren

The evening audience was especially favored by having two peakers of National and world reputation, Miss Susan Rebham, National Y. W. C. A. Secy, brought the message of the great need of retaining and holding fast our prohibition victory especially for the young people.

Mr. Gifford Gordon of Australia, was the main speaker of the evening and held his audience spell bound for one hour. Mr Gordon is a man of power and has a wonderful message His appeal for America to "Hold Fast" in this great fight against the liquor traffic not only for our own country but for Australia and the whole world's sake brought tears to many an eye.

The convention closed with music by the St. Matthews Quartette and prayer by Rev. Hauger.

Haigh, and at that time I told Mr. Sperry that I did not remember that said motion contained any other matter than as shown by my minutes of said meeting. Considerable comment is being made concerning the speed with which some of our young people who are attending Elyria High School drive their machines back and forth It so often happens that such recklessness injures others who are in no way at fault. Then again, looking at it from another view point we will quote what came under our observation on a card in one of our Elyria grocery stores recently.

"Drive carefully, you might meet a fool Drive carefully; two fools might meet."

Fittingly used in the finest of homes

PLASTER, as you know, is not an ideal interior lining. It invariably cracks, chips and falls.

Now, however, you can have permanent Upson Board — better than plaster for walls and ceilings because it can never crack or fall. Upson Board is a proved success, averaging less than one complaint to every 4,000,000 feet.

Just as Upson Board is being used in the finest of new homes, so there is nothing better for re-covering old plastered walls and ceilings. In either case, it saves muss and delay.

Your carpenter can apply Upson Board without disfiguring nail-heads by using Upson Self-Clinching fasteners. They hold the panels securely in place from the back and eliminate unsightly nail-head depressions.

Do not confuse blue-center Upson Board with ordinary wall board. It is different. It is stronger, harder and stiffer, and the new Super-Surface makes it the most beautiful board on the market.

ALL AMERICAN OWNED SHIPS TO BE DENIED BOOZE CARGO

WASHINGTON Oct 7 — All American [illegible] privately owned, as well [illegible] operated by the [illegible] to be outlawed as rum [illegible] of Attorney General Daugherty

The attorney general is understood to take the position that the law follows the flag This means that liquor sales which have boosted American shipping board traffic will suddenly decline, and thousands of overseas passengers will seek other routes on which foreign owned ships are allowed to dispense the cup that cheers without legal limitation

The shipping board today estimated that its loss on that account probably will increase the government deficit by many thousands of dollars Chairman Lasker is reconciled to the attorney general's decision and said he would await a final adjudication of the matter by the supreme court

Shipping board revenues have increased about 400 per cent since Mr Lasker's legal adviser decided to allow shipping board vessels to possess and sell liquor for beverage purposes Records show that many millions of dollars in passenger receipts were realized by diverting the 'thirsty American traffic to vessels operated by the shipping board in the trans oceanic routes

Attorney General Daugherty said today that his opinion, designed to clear up most of the involved questions on liquor smuggling, but adroitly side stepping the issue of foreign ships will be ready for Secretary of the Treasury Mellon within a few days What he will actually decide will be known only when that opinion is made public Several revisions of the opinion have been made at the suggestion of the state department The British embassy still is vigorously prosecuting complaints against British boat seizures, and is at war with the state department over return to British owners of millions of dollars worth of rum confiscated by American agents

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn. — "Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. T. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, [illegible]

OHIO COLLEGES LEAD GIVING MISSIONARIES

DELAWARE, O., Oct 7.—Ohio colleges and universities lead among those of the United States in the number of student volunteer missionaries actually sailing for work in foreign mission fields, according to the statistics now published for 1921 by the Student Volunteer Movement Bulletin, New York. Ohio Wesleyan university, Wooster and Oberlin lead the colleges of the country in this work in the order named.

Ohio Wesleyan stands first with by far the largest number of foreign missionaries going to foreign fields, having a total of sixteen for the year. Wooster is second with nine and Oberlin is third with seven.

The thirty-two new missionaries from Ohio Wesleyan, Wooster and Oberlin are scattered in all quarters of the globe in nine different mission territories. Japan has received six of these missionaries; Porto Rico, one; China, nine; Korea, four, Siam, two; Africa, one; South America, two; India, four, and Persia, three.

The Royal Academy, England's ancient institution, has for the second time in two years accepted an original etching by Eileen Soper, a 16-year-old girl.

The working women of Paris have the reputation of displaying a remarkable sense of color in choosing their attire.

MY MARRIAGE PROBLEMS

Adele Garrison's New Phase of

Revelations of a Wife

Copyrighted, 1922, by Newspaper Features Service, Inc.

The Fear That Troubled Madge Upon the Road.

"Ah! Rosalind!" Lillian said lightly, sweeping me with a critical eye, as I came into the library, garbed in my knickerbocker suit, topped by Dicky's hat and coat, the costume she had requested. You're certainly not a very convincing-looking man, even though you are, as you probably know, most fetching in that rig. But I think you'll pass at the car wheel, and that's all that's necessary. Did you drink your coffee?"

"I forgot," I said truthfully, for my bit of unpleasant retrospection in Dicky's room had put all thought of her injunction out of my mind. "I'll get it directly."

I hurried to the door, glad, indeed, of the chance to escape Tom Chester's eyes, which, filled with disapproval of both my costume and my proposed escort of him, had been fixed upon me from the second of my entrance.

"See that you do," Lillian called after me, and in the kitchen I dutifully ate and drank as she had bidden me, although I never had felt less appetite for food or drink. Lillian came to the kitchen before I had finished.

"Dr. Pettit will go out and relieve Bevins at once," she said. "When Bevins comes in I want you to take him out to Dicky's car. He'll tinker it up, and then we'll be all ready for whatever develops."

She did Bevins's mechanical ability but simple justice. Taciturn, but as swift of action as he was slow of speech, he went over the car with a practiced hand, made a mysterious adjustment or two, and delivered a laconic dictum.

"She'll do for twenty miles or so," he said, "but you'll have to drive her carefully, and you ought to put her in a garage tomorrow."

A Nervous Wait.

I thanked him and went back to the library, too absorbed in the expedition which lay before me to inquire as to the extent of the injury I had done to the car. Dimly I foresaw an unpleasant minute or two with Dicky if his car should be seriously damaged but I was too tensely strung for the present emergency to worry about a possibility so remote.

The tension did not lessen during the next hour, while Lillian, Dr Pettit, Tom Chester and I sat in the library waiting for the messenger who should tell of Allen Drake's safe arrival at the other end of the route where the strange limousine waited for Smith.

Lillian did her best to make the occasion seem an ordinary one, but Dr Pettit's stiffness, Tom Chester's weakness and gloom, and my own nervous state made her task a hopeless one, and I think she was more keenly relieved than any of us when the expected knock came at the door, and one of Tom Chester's men came in, crossed to his chair, said a few rapid words to him in an undertone, received a low-toned instruction in return, and left the room again. Tom Chester looked at Lillian.

"He reports Mr. Drake safely in the car at the end of the road, with everything in readiness for starting," he said.

"Good," Lillian commented. "I'll just step ever and get your father, Madge, and then you people can start. The two operatives will stand guard over Smith until you are well on your way, and then I'll take a hand, and stage things so he can make his get-away without suspecting he's being permitted to do it."

On the Road.

She was out of the room before she fairly had finished speaking, and was back again with my father in short order. From that minute things moved so swiftly that I was guiding Dicky's car down the driveway in the wake of Dr. Pettit, with my father bringing up the rear, before I fully realized that I was fairly embarked upon the expedition which was to witness the departure of Smith from our neighborhood. Tom Chester's bicycle was in the tonneau of my car with a robe concealing it from any passing curious glance, and Tom Chester, himself—pallid and visibly trembling with physical weakness—sat by my side.

Before we had gone a mile I began to have grave doubts that the young fellow's flesh would be able to answer the demands which his indomitable spirit was putting upon it. I feared that the journey of almost two miles through the wood road in the wake of the limousine would be a physical impossibility by the time we reached the spot, and I began to rack my brains for a plan by which I could keep from failure the piece of work for the completion of which Lillian had toiled so long.

We were about half a mile from the entrance to the wood road, the location of which I knew perfectly, when by prearrangement Dr. Pettit began to zigzag his car back and forth across the road as if he were intoxicated.

I knew that my father, back of us, would blow the horn of the car he was driving, as soon as the entrance of the road came in sight, and I grasped the rather wobbly wheel of Dicky's car tightly, in readiness for the quick turn I was scheduled to make a few yards the other side of the entrance to the wood road.

PROHIBITION PARTY FLAYS BOOZE TAXES

COLUMBUS, Oct. 7.—Opposition to the use of cigarettes, support of strict enforcement of prohibition laws, advocacy of taxation revision so as to provide for a graded scale of rates proportionate to the amount of tax valuations, a square deal for the farmer, liberal wages and an eight hour work day are planks contained in the platform adopted at the state convention here of the prohibition party.

Other platform plans favor recognition of God in the federal constitution, one day's rest in seven, Bible reading in the public schools, uniform federal divorce laws, rigid movie censorship, and condemns the provisions of the Ohio election laws which prevent the prohibitionists from placing their state ticket on the November ballot.

Failing to obtain sufficient nominating signatures, the prohibitionists are forced to write the names of their candidates on the ballot at the polls

The platform, also ,opposes the initiated bee-light wine proposal, objects to appropriation of state funds for sectarian purposes, and demands that public charitable and corrective institutions be open to official inspection.

"WHERE FRIENDS MEET"

AUTOMOBILES

Automobile Industry Has Far Outstripped Iron and Steel

Analysis of information secured through Governmental sources discloses that the automobile industry is the largest manufacturing enterprise in the world.

Thirty years ago, Bryce in his classic treatise on the American Commonwealth referred to America's great railway system as the means of communication that held this country together and rendered it one for all social, political and commercial purposes

"During the past decade," says the October issue of the AUTOMOBILE TRADE JOURNAL, "another great advance in inter-communication has been made. The automobile marks the most successful attempt to provide 'individual transportation' since the first cave-man harnessed the progenitor of the modern horse and thereby supplied himself with a means of travel afield."

The tremendous growth of the automobile industry in recent years is due solely to the fact that it has supplied a public need.

Far Greater Than Steel and Iron

The value of the 1922 automotive output will be approximately as follows:

Automobiles ...	$1,350,000,000
Tires	675,000,000
Replacement Parts	550,000,000
Accessories	150,000,000
Total	$2,725,000,000

This total is 33 per cent greater than the value of the output in the second largest industry, the refining of petroleum (65 per cent of which is used by automobiles), 65 per cent greater than the value of the iron and steel output, and more than twice the value of all cotton goods produced in the textile mills of the country.

Affects Many Basic Industries

The automobile business is the most essential of our manufacturing industries, because it directly affects a greater number of what might be trmed "basic" industries, than does any other manufacturing enterprise.

Annual imports of crude rubber into the United States are now 600,000,000 pounds per annum Of this total, 81 per cent, or 490,000,000 pounds, will be required this year for automobile tires

Production of plate glass this year should total about 68,000,000 square feet Nearly one-third of this, or 21,500,000 square feet, will be required for automobiles.

This year 5,100,000,000 gallons of gasoline will be produced About 4,320,000,000 gallons, or 80 per cent of this total, will be used in automobiles

While over 850,000,000 gallons of [illegible] used in 1921 only 575,000,000 gallons were required for domestic consumption About 230,000,000 gallons, or over 10 per cent, of the domestic consumption will be needed for the operation of automobiles

About 75,000 bales of Egyptian-type, long staple cotton will be grown in the United States this year while 400,000 bales will be imported from EEgypt About 38 per cent of this total or 180,000 bales, will be used in the manufacture of automobile tires

Any weakness in the market for automotive products will be immediately reflected in the business of all of those industries which depend wholly or in part on the automobile business for a market.

Employs 1,662,000 Wage Earners

With its various subsidiary lines the automobile business influences the industrial labor market to a more pronounced extent than does any other great industry

There are 727,000 wage earners, in production, sales and service work, whose income is derived directly from the industry

In addition to these there are 935,000 other wage earners, who derive their income indirectly from the automobile business These are drivers and chauffeurs and workers in industries supplying raw materials to manufacturers of automotive products Figures for workers in these industries were obtained by multiplying total workers in each of these industries by the percentage of the total output needed for automotive products

Directly and indirectly the automobile industry influences the employment of 1,662,000 wage earners

There are approximately 12,750,000 wage earners supported from manufacturing industries or engaged in transportation Of these 13 per cent are dependent upon the automobile business

Carries More Passengers Than Rail-Roads

The automobile is, today, the leading passenger transportation agency in the United States

There are today 55,250 railroad passenger coaches in use, having a seating capacity of 2,270,000 passengers The seating capacity of 9,500,000 automobiles now in use is 47,000,000.

Based on records for the past five years, there should be 47,000,000,000 passenger miles to the credit of rail facilities in 1922. The average number of passengers per automobile is two, and the average annual mileage is six thousand. Hence the automobile must be credited with 114,000,000,000 passenger miles this year

The automobile business is the most stable of the great industrial enterprises, because it has been the first to return to normal. The number of automobiles and trucks that will be manufactured this year will be slightly in excess of 2,000,000

The annual production of radium during the last five years has averaged 35 grams, at approximately $20,000 a gram.

With these reductions Hudson offers the greatest value in its history.

The new improved Super-Six motor, introduced a few months ago, makes it the smoothest—most delightful of all the Hudsons to drive. It has charms in performance that owners of earlier models never knew.

Everyone has conceded Hudson top place in reliability. For seven years it has led in fine car sales. More than 120,000 Super-Sixes are in service. The new prices and the Hudson of today with refinements in chassis and body give it a value attraction careful buyers of fine cars cannot ignore.

Of special interest to those who desire a closed car at little more than open car cost—is the Coach. No car of its utility and price advantage is to be found within $500 of its cost.

LIGHT-SIX SEDAN

Studebaker

Let Us Show You the Difference!

Vibration is destructive. It shortens the life of a car. It takes the pleasure out of riding because it causes rattles, squeaks and other irritating noises.

Vibration is particularly annoying in closed cars.

There is no perceptible period of vibration in the Studebaker Light-Six at any speed. This is due in part to Studebaker's method of machining the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces. No other car, at anywhere near the price, follows this practice.

Lack of vibration and the quiet, smooth-running motor find quick approval from everyone who rides in the Light-Six Sedan.

And every driver is similarly enthusiastic over the way it throttles down to a walking gait in high gear—and the quick response that follows the touch of the accelerator.

Aside from its mechanical excellence, the Light-Six Sedan is notable for its sterling coach work. The substantial body, like the chassis, is built complete in Studebaker plants Materials and workmanship are of highest grade.

Long, semi-elliptic springs and deep, restful, nine inch cushions afford genuine comfort. Upholstery is of a rich, mohair velvet plush – good-looking and durable.

Today's price is the lowest at which the Light-Six Sedan has ever been sold.

The name Studebaker on your car is the best protection you can have!

BUSINESS SEDAN

Exceptional interest has been aroused by the practical arrangement of the interior.

The entire rear compartment furnishings—seat, seat cushions, back cushions, seat frame, foot rest, carpet and all—can be removed from the car in a few moments.

The front seat is then tilted forward, giving a gross clearance of twenty-two inches through the rear doors.

In this way a space of sixty-four cubic feet in the rear compartment is made available for loading

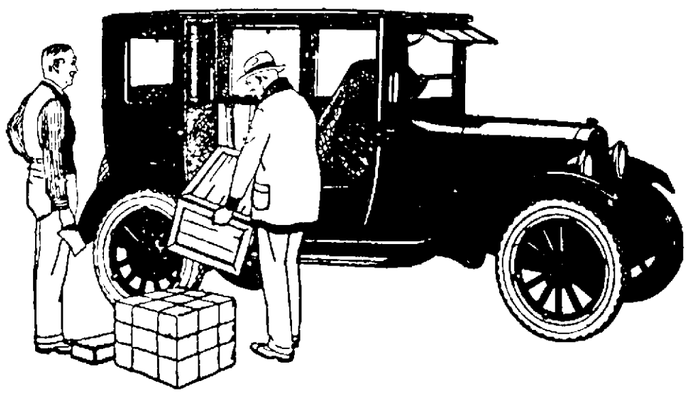

When the rear seat fixtures are back in place, the interior is complete and attractive in appearance. Its convertibility is not apparent to the eye.

Business men, farmers, salesmen, campers, tourists and everyone who has occasion, at times, to carry bulky articles or luggage, will readily appreciate the great utility of this construction.

ASSERTS CHINA IS BECOMING MODERN

OBERLIN, Oct. 7.—Dr. Charles Tenney, a classmate of President King, was the speaker in chapel Friday on the question of China. He said that he was reluctant to speak on China for two reasons: (1) because the Americans are bound up too much by their own affairs and consequently take no account of matters on the other side of the Pacific. The world is smaller now, on account of the improved means of communication and the modernization of China is a matter of vital importance to Americans. If not so much now, certainly it will be in the future, and (2), because he is ashamed to speak of the way China is conducting the business of a government. The trouble is that we had a George Washington, but China has never had one. There have been many presidents of China who would so have styled themselves but in the end their petty greed brought trouble and disaster. At present the republic is in the hands of military despots, who fight between themselves nad are not interested in the welfare of their country.

Americans should listen to the words the seekers for power, yet watch their actions also.

The Chinese have this advantage They go along in their own way with little attention to the Central Government. To them it makes no difference to whom they pay taxes just so they are left alone. This indicates lack of patriotism. Yet, in spite of those drawbacks and the deplorable condition of the Central Government the Chinese are making progress. The missionaries exert a great influence in China because each missionary regards himself as the exponent of the higher western civilization.

The Y M C. A. also takes a leading part by the education of the young men in the ideals of western life. Many of the governors of the provinces have become christians and act in the manner of reformers.

The real Chinese people are superior in mental ability to the white race. Though they are barely civilized in some respects, especially in the sciences; they are highely civilized in others.

The tour, made in automobile, led the students, five of whom were girls and five men, across Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to a bird farm in eastern Iowa Lake Okogoji, in Iowa, and to the Bad Lands of the Dakotas

After stops and studies at these points, the party explored Yellowstone park, Wyo., Bryce's canyon, the Cedar Brakes and the Zion canyon, all in Utah.

DODGE BROTHERS TO ADD $1,500,000 BODY PLANT

Following recent completion of a vast construction program costing $8,000,000, Dodge Brothers, Detroit, have broken ground for another huge 8-story building requiring an additional investment of $1,500,000 In this new unit, 440,000 ft of floor space will be provided It will be devoted largely to closed body work

The new principle of all-steel closed body construction developed by Dodge Brothers has generated a rapidly growing demand for this type of body The new plant will provide much-needed space for assembly, enameling and storage of the all-steel closed bodies Many large presses and enormous electrically heated enameling ovens will be installed and warehousing space will be provided

The announcement of proposed increase of manufacturing facilities comes as a welcome one to Dodge Brothers dealers throughout the country, as the demand for cars has been far in advance of present production

HUDSON-ESSEX REDUCTIONS ARE FROM $50 TO $120

The prices of several of the standard motor cars are materially lower today, considering the values put into them, than at any time in the history of the automobile, says Mr. Smith of Andress & Smith, local Hudson-Essex dealer.

"Ever since the summer of 1920, when drastic cuts began to be made in all businesses, the automotive industry has been a leader in getting back to pre-war values. That the public appreciates this is reflected in the tremendous sales of automobiles this year.

"Today, two years after this downward level started, many automobile manufacturers are quoting prices which, considering improvements made in the last five years, are actually lower than pre-war levels.

"The latest price reduction on both Hudson and Essex cars, made September 22, is the third substantial one that the Hudson Motor Car Company has made within 12 months In that time, prices of Hudson cars have been lowered from $170 to $370 and Essex prices from $150 to $250.

"The latest Hudson-Essex reductions were $50 on all Essex models, phaeton, cabriolet and coach and $120 each on the Hudson speedster, 7-passenger phaeton and coach. The Super-Six sedan price was considerably lowered when the new model was announced in August

HILL CLIMB WON BY FORD USING A BOSCH IGNITION

The fourth annual Pike's Peak hill climb contest, which was held at Colorado Springs recently, was won by a Ford special equipped with the Bosch Battery Ignition System. This news was given out yesterday by T. A. Aust of F. S. Aust & Bro., the official Bosch Service Station in this city.

The driver of the winning car was Noel Bullock, who made the climb in 19 minutes, 50 4-5 seconds The distance covered was 12 2-5 miles up grades of from 7 to 10 1-2 per cent The course is marked with 60 curves, most of them being sharp switchbacks.

Glen Schultz in an Eessex won second place, his time being 20 minutes and 41 seconds, while Roy W. Beavers took third place in a Chevrolet in 23 minues, 3 2-5 seconds.

The Bosch Battery Ignition System has won wide popularity among auto racing drivers, particularly among those who drive Ford specials. Many other races of lesser importance have been won recently by Bosch-equipped Fords.
